FROM THE CLUB BOARD

Tim Sutherland, our General Manager, informed me Thursday, October 29 that he was resigning, effective December 23, 2020. In the meantime Tim is still with us and will continue to perform his role as GM. With invaluable knowledge and expertise in the HOA business, Tim worked hard to install guidance, best practices and procedures and was appreciated and respected by directors, residents, the company employees, vendors and The Villages as a whole.

When we went through this transition three plus years ago, the process was essentially invisible to Villagers. Things ran as normal thanks to our dedicated and experienced staff. I fully anticipate the same will happen again.

I will hold a meeting of the Presidents Council, which consists of the Presidents and Vice Presidents from the three corporation boards, to discuss where we go from here including continuing operations and the process for replacing the GM.

We will continue to update everyone as our plans develop.

—Mike Falarski, President
VCGG Board of Directors

Message from the Presidents' Council

One of the improvements in the new Management Agreement (MA) between the Association and the Club was the creation of a Presidents' Council (PC) to foster communication and cooperation between the two organizations. At the November 2 meeting it was decided to ask the Homeowners' Board to join and to expand the scope to any topic of interest to the three boards beyond just the MA. The Presidents' Council now consists of the Presidents and Vice Presidents from all three corporation boards.

The first meeting of the expanded Presidents' Council was held on Monday, November 2. The meeting began with a discussion of the purpose, charter and basic functional parameters of the PC. This is still a work in progress. The focus of the meeting turned to topics of interest to the participants including the GM replacement, street funding, COVID impacts, the upcoming budget development process, etc. There is still much to discuss. The next meeting has been set to continue discussions, action items established, and information sharing started.

Please be assured that the three corporation boards are working to support one another in the common concerns that affect us all.

—Mike Falarski, President
VGCC Board of Directors

—David Cook, President
Association Board of Directors

—Mary McBride, President
Homeowners' Board of Directors

At the Lomas Azules Pumpkin Roll

Walter Howald, with his silver locks, timing rollers at the finish line.

Once again, the famous Lomas Azules Pumpkin Roll was an outstanding success! Spectators from far and beyond witnessed the highly competitive annual event.

Terrific costumes, social distancing and everyone wore masks! Prizes were awarded to the winners of Longest Roll—Karen Honaker, Fastest Roll—Marky Olsen, and Slowest Roll—Maria Brand.

Many thanks to the fantastic neighbors and the committee of Jean Corrigan, Lynn Olsen, Joy Rem and Claire Hintergardt.

Watch Matinee Theatre today from the comfort of home

By Susan Pastorini

This Friday, November 6 at 3 p.m. the Villages Amateur Theatre will present its first Zoom show, "Stories I Ain't Told Nobody Yet." Written by Jo Carson, this compilation of stories and poems deals with family traditions, siblings, forgetful elders and gossip neighbors.

Featuring Connie Hendrickson, Nancy Keane, Tom Carson, Shirley Roberts, Nelson Fricke, Madelaine Yannaconne and Nick Yannaconne this Zoom piece lends itself to shelter-in-place. Each of the actors will perform from his/her own home and read three or four of the short pieces that express the human condition. You will definitely hear yourself in one of the pieces—guaranteed!

Please tune in by using the following URL to register and see the show: <https://tinyurl.com/vatmat11-06-20>

You will not be seen or heard so you can munch on popcorn, drink a beverage and wear your pajamas while watching the heart-warming vignettes written by a true Tennessee native.

PULSE

Dear Readers:

The Villager welcomes everyone's voice sharing ideas, opinions and accounts of life in The Villages in the Pulse column. Please follow the guidelines carefully.

Pulse deadline is 11 a.m. on Friday of the week prior to publication. Pulse letters will be published in complete or abridged form at the discretion of the Publisher and in accordance with the editorial policies and rules established by the Club Board of Directors. (See VGCC Rule 1.30.) Opinions expressed by Pulse letter authors do not necessarily reflect the opinions of The Villager Publisher, staff, boards of directors or management.

All Pulse letters must be 200 words or fewer on a single topic relating to life in the Villages. Each letter must also include name, address, phone number, date and number of words. Typed or legibly written letters must include your signature and may be hand delivered to the Pulse mailbox in Administration Building B or by mailing to the Communications Advisory Committee, 5000 Cribari Lane, San Jose, CA 95135.

Letters may be submitted electronically through the Pulse Submission Form on the Resident Portal: resident.thevillagesgcc.com/pulse, or emailed to Villager Managing Editor S. Hinrichs: shinrichs@the-villages.com.

E-mailed letters must include the text within the body of the e-mail and the subject line must read PULSE LETTER.

3 Pulse letters received this week.
0 Pulse letters not meeting Pulse Letter Guidelines.
3 Pulse letters published this week.

Note: Pulse authors are solely responsible for the statements and opinions contained in the Pulse letters. The Villager does not verify the accuracy of any statements.

Note: Pulse letters are still being accepted through the "Shelter-In-Place" order in digital form only. You may take a picture of your hand-written letter and e-mail it as a JPEG attachment to: shinrichs@the-villages.com.

All Pulse letters that are published are retained by the Communications Advisory Committee (CAC) for a period of 12 months. Rejected Pulse letters are not shared with anyone outside the CAC, management or Club Board and staff liaisons for the reason of confidentiality.

I wish to offer thanks and appreciation to the writer of the Pulse letter in the October 15 Villager for her frank, personal experience with COVID-19 that she shared with all of us.

This is first time we saw an actual patient telling us what they went through and what are, after the recovery, the lingering problems that patients get.

Our thanks to that person.

—Prakash Deshmukh

I was very glad to see the Pulse letters from the Villager recovering from COVID-19. I'm so sorry for what they are going through, but I think there are many Villagers who needed to read what was written. I'm very disappointed when I see people having parties in their homes, not social distancing, not wearing masks and disregarding COVID regulations. No one is immune to the virus. It impacts all of us, and it's very sad to see how politicized it's become. If you want to see the horrific impacts, search on "Fusco COVID" to read about friends of mine who lost five family members early on. Surviving members still are suffering side effects.

Please, follow guidelines. Wearing a mask and social distancing not only helps keep you safe, it helps keep others safe as well. We are an aging and more vulnerable group and need to help keep everyone healthy.

—Anahid Gregg

When I was a teenager and being unreasonable, my mother would send me to my room for an "attitude adjustment." If my mother were alive today she would send both the Association Board and the residents to their rooms, suggesting we develop some guiding principles which recognize residents as intelligent, responsible, and resourceful constituents.

She would have been appalled at the Board's response (or lack of) to the recent requests to bring back Jazzercise, and establish some outdoor library services. She would have rudely interrupted the last Board meeting and said that if we are creative enough to evaluate risky indoor dining, then we can find a way to safely return to some outdoor recreational activities. She would have said to the Board, "Shame on you for making residents fear their requests are being dismissed without full consideration."

Maybe it is time to develop a resident written request form and procedure which includes: a) Board follow-up promise date and mechanism, b) space for the Board to state the issues that need addressing before approval, and, c) designation of who is to address each issue - the empowered resident who completed the request, the Board, or management... Mother would be pleased.

—Diane Malcolm

Please submit Pulse letters in digital form only

Since Building B is closed during the "Shelter-In-Place" order, Pulse letters are only being accepted in digital form.

In the event of a staffing shortage occurring among employees of The Villager, publication may be temporarily suspended until the subsidence of the illness. Residents are encouraged to sign up for electronic messaging through Fast Lane in case of emergency.

Sonata DAC turns the tables on Trick-or-Treat

The Sonata DAC held a “reverse trick-or-treat” in Sonata Village on Halloween this year.

Rather than tiny goblins and fairies asking for treats, a few residents dressed in black and orange and went door-to-door spreading Halloween cheer and providing a small treat. It was a wonderful opportunity to visit with familiar faces and meet new ones!

The reverse trick-or-treaters gave out candy bags with ribbon loops that held notes stating this was a Halloween treat from the Sonata DAC. The ribbon allowed us to hang the treat on the door knob in order to maintain social distancing. Residents were emailed in advance to let them know about the treats and to ask for volunteers to walk around. By including people in the process it allowed them to be prepared (and dress for the occasion as well, if they chose). This was particularly important for those who were house-bound. We also didn’t want to frighten anyone by having unexpected people show up at their doors unannounced. We wanted an event that required no effort on the part of our residents (except those who volunteered).

Treats hung on doors for Halloween in Sonata

ABOVE & BEYOND

A huge virtual hug for Barbara G.

For years, part of the overall success of The Villages has been the volunteers and the hours they give to make things happen here. Recently the president of the Arts & Crafts group sent out a strong appeal for volunteers to serve on the A&C board, rather than allowing the organization to die. Response was good—and immediate. Kudos to the president for waking folks up. Let's face it—a major factor in the long-term success of Arts & Crafts has been the long-lived stewardship of Barbara Gottesman, who took over A&C several years ago when it was in a slump. She has served A&C in many capacities over all these years, culminating in managing the recent online Art Challenges and the online Juried Show. She admits that this has been a great deal of work, but she "...would do almost anything to keep ART alive in The Villages."

(SRS) SENIOR RESOURCE SERVICES

How not to be a confused spouse

Picture this scenario: A particular husband and wife often divide household duties. He pays the bills, manages the finances, and takes care of the cars. She cleans the house, cooks, and manages their social life. Recently the husband was in the hospital for two weeks and in a rehab facility for physical therapy for another four weeks. The wife realized she didn't know how to keep the finances going while he was gone. She knew he mostly took care of things on the computer but did not know which sites to use or the necessary usernames and passwords.

With this scenario in mind, SRS has a handout titled "Finances – What Does Your Spouse Need to Know."

There are two sections to the handout; the first section titled "Small Picture." This list is the basics for everyday finances, e.g. where are the bank accounts, what is automatically deposited, which bills are paid automatically and how the accounts are reviewed and reconciled at the end of the month.

If one spouse typically pays all of the bills, SRS suggests the other spouse take over that responsibility periodically – say every six months. Let the spouse who has been handling the finances use the opportunity to talk about why things are done the way they are. Both must promise not to grumble or criticize or use eye rolls but to use it as a mutual learning experience.

And yes, next January and February let the other spouse get your tax information ready for your tax preparer.

The second section titled Big Picture takes a general look at your finances such as what does it cost to live per month and how will finances change when one partner dies.

The handout also includes a reference to the SRS handout titled "Location of Important Documents and Information." This handout has long been a favorite handout of Villagers and many Villagers have requested it recently.

If you wish a copy of either of the mentioned handouts, leave a message on the SRS phone at 408-239-5253. A volunteer will e-mail the handout to you or drop it off in your mail tube.

Being businesspeople, SRS talks about financial skills. But we hope the other spouse will teach their house duties to the other spouse. How do you do the laundry? Can you make a grilled cheese sandwich? Do you know when and how to get the car serviced? And remember, no eye rolls.

Note: The Senior Resource Services (SRS) office is currently closed for drop-in assistance. You may still leave messages at 408-239-5253 as we monitor phone messages every day and can still answer questions by phone. We can also e-mail handouts. The purpose of SRS is to provide education and general business and financial information. All assistance is free and confidential. You should ask your professional adviser about your individual situation.

Seniors eligible to renew Driver's Licenses online

Californians age 70 and older with a noncommercial driver's license will soon be able to renew online or by mail, eliminating the need to visit a California Department of Motor Vehicles office. Licenses with an expiration date between March 1, 2020, throughout the COVID-19 emergency are eligible.

Through Executive Order, Governor Gavin Newsom has temporarily waived the California law requiring drivers age 70 and older to visit a DMV field office to renew their license for the length of California's State of Emergency or until modified. The DMV is completing the programming necessary so customers who meet the criteria will be able to complete their renewal online beginning December 6.

Nearly all California drivers are now eligible to renew their license online or by mail—even if their renewal notice states an office visit is required.

The DMV previously provided yearlong extensions to senior drivers with licenses expiring in March through December 2020. Those who received the extensions are eligible to renew online.

The DMV previously expanded eligibility for drivers 69 and under to renew online, even if their DMV notification states they must come to an office.

The ability for senior drivers to renew online is the latest action to help Californians avoid or delay a DMV office visit during the COVID-19 pandemic. The DMV continues to streamline its processes to limit the time customers spend at an office. Customers applying for a REAL ID are encouraged to fill out the online application and upload the required documents before they come to the office for expedited service.

He will also focus on advances in diabetes care with an emphasis on new technologies applied to these problems.

Dr. Wilson is a Stanford University Professor Emeritus in Pediatrics - Endocrinology and Diabetes, and is an internationally known clinical researcher concentrating in the area of pediatric diabetes. He has been the principal investigator at Stanford University with the NIH funded Type1 studies for 25 years.

Have you or has someone you've known fallen? This can be very scary especially when you go out for a walk again after the fall. You tend to be a little less sure of yourself and your footing.

Go TotalGreen for Clean Energy

By the Sustainable Villages Club

When you convert to TotalGreen with San Jose Clean Energy, your home will be powered by solar energy—100 percent renewable and 100 percent carbon-free. Every time you flip a light switch, do a load of laundry, or stream a movie at home you can feel satisfied you are doing your part to clean up the air.

PG&E and San Jose Clean Energy are making it fast and easy to convert your home's power usage from fossil fuels to renewable, clean energy sources like Solar. The incremental cost is $.01/kWh which translates to about $5 per month upcharge for 100 percent Solar or carbon-free wind.

Go to the San Jose Clean Energy Website. Under "Your Choices" select "Total Green." There is information on the Clean Energy program and an online form to apply for 100 percent Clean Energy. Fill in your PG&E account number, your name and zip code. Hit "Next" and complete the selection boxes and you are done. You will receive an email confirming your transaction.

Visit the Sustainable Villages website at Sustainablevillagesclub.com for more information or to join the club and help bring sustainable living to the Villages.

Advanced Care Directive workshop— everyone needs one

We all have our excuses: “I know, I know, I’m going to do it.” “I have plenty of time to fill out that form!” “I’m healthy and don’t need to do it right now.” But what better time to do it now that we have time on our hands? The VMA is sponsoring a Zoom workshop on Wednesday, November 18 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. on how to create an Advanced Health Care Directive.

An advanced Health Care Directive is a legal document which appoints one or more individuals you trust to make medical decisions for you when you are unable to do so. It sets forth the types of medical treatment you want to receive and the medical treatment you do not want. It ensures that your treatment wishes are honored. It is different from a Living Will.

The workshop will be presented by Sabine Hass who is a Nurse Practitioner for With Grace Hospice. She will help you complete the forms to create this legal document.

To register, please contact Bonnie Grim at 408-238-4029 or bgrim@sequoialiving.org.

Recycle kitchen green waste with vermicomposting

By Rebecca Barrans, Sustainable Villages Club

Vermi...what? Vermicomposting, or earth worm composting produces a rich organic product perfect for enhancing your garden soil. Vermicomposting is an easy process for composting virtually all your green waste. The earth worm waste produced, or worm castings, is shaped like tiny footballs. These provide natural soil nutrients, aeration, and improved drainage—just what your garden needs.

Start the process with a small to medium size plastic container for a worm bin. For bedding use moist, not wet, shredded newspaper or shredded paper towel. Provide air circulation with tiny holes on all four sides of the worm bin. Add a handful of red wigglers, along with some bedding to start the process. Move the worm bin to an out-of-the-way dark, cool place. The garage is perfect. Give the worms a couple of days to adjust to their bin and then start feeding them with tiny amounts of the green kitchen waste only. Feed approximately 2 cups per week with no meats, oils, or dairy. Use less food to begin with but use lots of bedding to cover the worms and the food. Secure a stable cover on the worm bin to keep curious pets out.

Watch for future articles on Vermicomposting or visit the SVC website for more details on this process.

Join the Sustainable Villages Club to become part of a team to bring sustainable practices to the Villages. Visit the SVC website at sustainablevillagesclub.com to sign up.

Time to order Mah Jongg cards!

By Barbara Smith

COVID-19 has changed the way Villagers live. Many of us have found new and unique ways of playing Mah Jongg during the last eight months. Fortunately, we live in a community where all of us have followed the recommendations to wear masks, social distance, stay away from crowds, and wash our hand regularly. This being said, most of us cannot wait for 2020 to be over.

Now is the time to order your 2021 cards. The window for ordering next year’s card continues through January 20, 2021. The prices of cards have gone up. Small print cards are $9. Large print cards are $10.

Barbara Smith will be coordinating the sale of Mah Jongg cards again this year. Checks are made out to Barbara Smith. At the end of the sale, one large check is written and all the individual checks are deposited. Please include the number and size of the cards you are ordering in the “memo” place on your check.

Checks can be mailed to: Barbara Smith, 2067 Folle Blanche Drive, San Jose, CA 95135 or placed in the tube under the mailbox.

Around April 1, your Mah Jongg card(s) will be sent directly to your home from the National Mah Jongg League in New York. Happy playing! Stay safe!

VMA Annual Donation info

Now that everyone has received the VMA Annual Donation information many people have inquired about how to get the donations to the VMA since the office is closed. You can always put your donation in the envelope provided and mail it, but if that is not possible you can call Barbara Miller at 408-270-0984 or Joe Civallo at 408-532-1544. Leave your name and number and one of them will call you back to arrange a time to pick it up from your house. The VMA is an organization that helps support all of us who live here. Please consider supporting it during their annual drive.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

The following events are sponsored by the Community Activities Department. Please telephone 223-4643 for additional information.

Special Thanksgiving treat coming to Channel 27!

Coming to The Villages very own “small screen” in celebration of the Thanksgiving holiday, on Channel 27, will be one of your very favorite former employees, Gavin Williams, doing a cooking demonstration exclusively for Villagers.

Gavin’s fun and instructional demonstration will show you how to prepare three special dishes to elevate your holiday table into something memorable and delicious:

The dishes include a Pear and Pomegranate Salad with Apple Cider Vinaigrette Dressing, an elegant main dish of Grilled Salmon with Tomato Conserva and a savory side dish of Butternut Squash Risotto.

Gavin Williams

All of us may still be stuck at home this year, but this enjoyable program will serve up a double portion of holiday spirit to this year’s turkey day.

Prepare yourself to take a moment to set yourself up to record this demonstration so you can watch, listen and pause as you prepare these holiday dishes. The broadcast times of the demonstration will be listed on the Fast Lane email blast of Thursday, November 12 to be posted at 5 p.m.

Included on this page are the recipes that will be featured on Gavin’s Channel 27 demonstration.

Jack-O’-Lantern Spooktacular Pumpkin Contest winners

Sharman Watkins, Jay Doubrava and Anahid Gregg are the winners of the Jack-O’-Lantern Spooktacular Pumpkin Contest.

Apple Cider Vinaigrette Dressing and Pear & Pomegranate Salad

- ¼ cup apple cider vinegar
- 2 tsp honey
- 1 tsp Dijon mustard
- 1 small garlic clove (minced)
- ¼ cup extra virgin olive oil
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 pear (any type)
- Seeds from ½ or small pomegranate
- 1 Head of butter lettuce
- 4 oz. of roasted green beans
- 3 oz. of toasted cashews
- 3 oz. of ricotta salata

Apple Cider Vinaigrette Dressing

Combine apple cider vinegar, honey, Dijon mustard, and garlic in a small bowl. Slowly add the olive oil, whisking continuously. Add salt and pepper to taste. Note: Apple cider vinegar and Dijon mustard are both pretty tangy so you may have to adjust the amount of oil and honey used.

Pear & Pomegranate Salad

Dice pear. Combine and toss pear, pomegranate seeds, lettuce, green beans, cashews, and ricotta. Add dressing as desired.

Grilled Salmon with Tomato Conserva

- 1 and ¼ cup cherry tomatoes
- 2 and ½ cups olive oil
- ½ bunch thyme
- 2 cloves garlic
- Whole black pepper (as desired)
- 2 oz capers
- 6-8 leaves basil
- 2 oz parsley
- ¼ cup sherry vinegar
- 2 6 oz. salmon fillets
- Kosher salt (as desired)
- Coarse ground black pepper (as desired)

Tomato Conserva

Wrap thyme, garlic and pepper in cheesecloth to make a sachet. In a medium-sized pot place tomatoes, olive oil and sachet; bring to a simmer over low heat for 5 minutes. Once tomatoes burst turn the mixture off and let cool to room temperature. Once cooled remove sachet and drain excess oil. Add capers, chopped basil, chopped parsley and sherry vinegar. Season to taste with salt and whole black pepper.

Grilled Salmon

Season flesh side of salmon with kosher salt and coarse black pepper. Heat pan until you see light smoke and place the fish flesh side down. Season the skin side of fish with salt and pepper while in pan. Sear for 3-4 minutes and then flip to skin side and cook for 2-3 minutes, Finish in preheated 350 degree oven for approximately 5-7 minutes depending on thickness of fish.

(See Butternut Squash Risotto recipe on page 18)

Express your thankfulness

At a time when restlessness and frustration can overwhelm us, it may be the time to pause and share thoughts of gratitude with each other. With Thanksgiving fast approaching, the Community Activities office is asking for thoughts of gratitude. What are you grateful or thankful for at The Villages? Please share your thoughts in 50 to 100 words. These can be emailed by November 12 to managing editor Scott Hinrichs at shinrichs@the-villages.com. For those without email, legibly handwritten thanks can be placed in the drop box outside of building B. Please include your name and contact information if we have questions. These will be published in the November 19 edition of The Villager.

Hermosa resident Sharman Watkins submitted a watercolor of pumpkins. She began the background of her composition with a “bull’s eye” of three primary colors using a wash technique. She then painted the pumpkins over the background.

Another Hermosa resident, Jay Doubrava, submitted this humorous remembrance of the “Notorious RBG,” the late Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

Who knew that the 2016 enhancement of the Bistro Fire Pit would be so critical four years later? Through the Evergreen Villages Foundation (EVF), Villages residents provided the funding to expand and enhance the former fire pit. Until the Clubhouse can open for indoor dining, John Yu and his marvelous crew will be serving breakfast, lunch and dinner on the Bistro Patio with the new heaters and the fire pit blazing. My husband and I had breakfast by the fire pit last week. Both the delicious food and the warm ambiance were delightful. Don your mask! Choose your table! ## CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Reflection on Sunday's Readings: by Robert A. Dolci, M.Div., M.A.

"When we are awaiting the arrival of a friend, we lovingly make the appropriate preparations for his/her visit. We are smart about being alert and ready and we respond joyfully upon their arrival.

The readings for this, the 32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time, bring to mind the sense of urgency with which we are challenged to demonstrate in our response to others. The author of the Book of Wisdom indicates that God is eager to reveal his wisdom to all to enable us to recognize Christ in others, see things from Christ's viewpoint and respond with love to others' needs and concerns.

St. Paul tells the Thessalonians that they have the opportunity to comfort others who have lost loved ones. He assured them that the early Christians are united with God and they, too, can look forward to being united with them.

In the Gospel, St. Matthew's end-of-time parable expresses the wisdom of being alert so as to respond to Christ seen through the needs of others.

So, during these important days, coinciding with the end of the Church's liturgical year, may we be inspired by God's wisdom to make choices that show our love and compassion for our community and demonstrate our recognition of Christ in our sisters and brothers."

Daily Mass: 8:30 a.m. No reservation needed.

COMMUNITY CHAPEL

'Be Infectious'

By Pastor Bill Hayden

The other day I had to run some errands and there was a certain spice that my wife had been looking for with no success. Since I was out on the run, I thought that I would find some and surprise her. After several grocery stores and aching feet, I was rewarded with two bottles on the very bottom shelf of the spice aisle. I called and told her that I had a surprise.

As I was walking through the aisle of ethnic foods, there was a family coming around the corner; a mother with her two sons. The youngest one, about 5 years old was taunting his older brother with a threatening stance, while repeating "I'm a ninja!" He pulled his cap down over his brow as he leaned toward him. The mother tried to calm him down, but he was on a roll. He turned toward me pulling his cap down and repeated, in a deep voice, "I'm a ninja!" With my mask on, I turned toward him bent down low and a deep voice I said, "I'm a grandfather!" The kid was stunned for a moment, while his mother, brother and I laughed. As they left the aisle the little boy pulled his cap down repeated his slogan and the mother said, "Goodbye, grandfather!" We all walked away with a smile on our faces and something to talk about and share with our families or friends.

I had my favorite cap on with a Harley Davidson shield that says, "Jesus Christ Heavenly-Devoted Son" on the crown and "I Love Jesus" on the bib. When people first glance at the cap they think Harley Davidson until they look closer and then they get the message!

With all of the tension and stress that people are experiencing these days, we who are secure in our faith should look for opportunities to lift other people's spirit with a kind word.

Romans 14:17 NLT: "For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit."

Good news! Join us each week at 10 a.m., Pastor Bill will deliver his Sunday Morning Sermon Message on video. You can experience his sermon via our Villages Community Website at Villagescommunitychapel.org

May God bless all of you with good health!

EPISCOPAL

'Certainty and Change'

By The Rev. Julia McCray-Goldsmith

Four of my five immediate family members have birthdays in November—two of them being decade birthdays this year—so it's a month that always reminds me of the passing of time. But if I'm honest, it's not just the birthdays: it's also the shorter days, the cooler weather, the leaves collecting on the ground. Seasonal change is upon us, ready or not.

One of the distinct blessings of our Judeo-Christian tradition—especially in contrast to the other middle eastern religions it was birthed amidst—is the sense of God's sovereignty over time and change. Yes, many things in creation are cyclical in nature. But God's time is more like a spiral than an endless circle: it has a beginning in creation and will have an end in Jesus Christ, even if familiar human patterns do tend to come round time and again.

Because of this, I find this season to be a great one for slowing down to ponder the direction of things. How will we get on board with God's "directionality," which always carries us towards freedom and fulfillment in Christ? At all seasons of our own life, we still have capacity to influence the history we live in for the better. With our vote, with our acts of kindness, with our commitment to justice for all people and for the earth. Every choice that we make contributes to the moral arc of the universe, which—as Martin Luther King reminded us—is long, but bends toward justice.

By Doreen Senior

October has always been my favorite month! It's not too hot and not too chilly, with the temperature just about right. It's been a long hot smoky summer and we are all ready for cooler weather, with a little rain thrown in but never on Tuesdays, of course! Will November weather be as nice? Halloween and November 3rd are behind us and now seem like a memory. What will come next?

I golfed on the 27th for the first time in almost eight months. It was great to see old friends in such a long time! They are all terrific golfers and I was a little worried that I just wasn't up to their level of golf. I hadn't remembered that golf is for fun and my worries were forgotten.

Does everyone remember the names of our Invitational tournaments? Wouldn't it be nice to recall some of them? I have the programs of the past seven years filed away, so if your memories go further back you can let me know. Our 2020 Invitational was postponed for an upcoming year, but we will all be looking forward to the Invitational coming together again in the future. Here are the names of some of the past Invitationals:

2013 - "Rockin' On The Green," 2014 - "Clown-a-Round," 2015 - "Tempo de Fiesta"

2016 - "Bonnets and Birdies," 2017 - "High Tee," 2018 - "Putt Now - Wine Later"

2019 - "Rhinstone Cowgirl." We chose the 2020 Invitational name "Roaring 2020s." Little did we know that 2020 would be a far cry from "Roaring"!

SHONIS

By Fran Schumaker

When all events in Cribari Plaza were suddenly cancelled until further notice, what to do about our upcoming general meeting and the packed agenda presented a challenge. In this time of the pandemic, the name of the game is "creative response." First up was the voting of the new board for 2021. Bonnie immediately went online, explained the situation and the voting began.

The Shonis were very responsive and prompt. Here is the new Shoni Board for 2021:

Captain: Fran Schumaker

Co-captains: Betty Hall and Lil Yamada

Secretary: Jan Ehrhardt

Treasurer: Delma Juarez

The next item on the agenda was the recognition of Ms. Ice Cream Sundae, our three-part game played the previous three Tuesdays. This time the board got really creative. Bonnie looked up when the winner was playing on the par three, informed her playing partners about the plan and proceeded to invite players on nearby holes to join in per COVID-19 protocols.

She blew a whistle so everyone knew when the presentation was happening. The Ms. Ice Cream Sundae winner for 2020 is Teddy Morse, with a low gross score of 114. Kacy Walden, dressed up with a white fur hat for the whipped cream and a simulated cherry on top, made the presentation to Teddy of an ice cream pin. Teddy now gets to choose her favorite ice cream confection at the Bistro compliments of the Shonis. Well done Teddy. Not a bad way to end her round.

That's it for today. Remember, for the month of November, it's winter rules. You can lift and clean your ball. Have a good week and take care.

BOCCE NEWS

By Barbara Orlando

We are acknowledging another great Captain, Howie Blumstein. Howie has been a member of the Bocce Club for about seven years and served as a Captain for most of that time. Last year, his Fall Round Robin Team, called the Bocce Blasters, consisted of team members, Dave Franklin, Roger King, Ed Kiss, Ellie Kiss, Bob Lapidus, Bob Mandell and Sandi Rosenblum. Howie, and his wife Rita are both big promoters of the Bocce Club. They act as Ambassadors to The Villages' new residents with Bocce being at the top of the list. Thank you both for promoting our club.

Most everyone living here in The Villages knows Howie, and his involvement in assorted clubs. The list consists of Bocce, Tennis, Jewish Group, Democratic, MLK, Chinese, Hadassah, Italian and the Men's Club's and the Pickleball Committee Adhoc team. You also know him from serving on the Club Board from 2015-2018 and was just reelected for 2020-2021, filling Frank Langben's vacated position. As Howie says, The Villages is a small community and considers everyone family, and if there's a need or problem, he will always be there to help, right next to his fellow community members.

Howie and Rita, after living here 21 years, love The Villages and are happy to be part of this great community and a member of the Bocce Club.

TENNIS TALK

Counting and Courting

By Roy Pennington

Tall, trim, and a perfect twosome could be used to describe this couple. Many of us may think, "Hey! They are talking about me." That may be true, but most of us would agree it is a perfect description of Nancy and Rich Fodor.

Just look at Nancy. She is always very stylish in her tennis attire, graceful on the court, and very cordial to everyone. While also impressive, Rich may not quite measure up to those same high standards. Besides being tall, Rich's most notable characteristic is the lady that he accompanies onto the court: i.e., his wife. (There is no intent to embarrass anyone...well OK we really don't care.)

Ah! Their tennis is what we really wanted to feature. While they are in big demand and play with numerous groups, these two frequent the courts drilling during the summer afternoon heat. Many of us have witnessed their exhausting sessions, and we marveled; because, after all, they are married. Recently some of us watched as Phyllis Seeger stepped to the fencing between the courts (social distance of course), and told Nancy that couples sharing the same court are a rare sight.

When Nancy and Rich were asked about tennis in their lives, their response was all about being "together." They were introduced to tennis in 1980 when their housing community in Orange County offered group lessons on the local courts. They moved to The Villages in 1998, but referred to their new home as "Vacation Village," and took advantage of the many amenities. Retirement came around 2012, and their playtime has since been unlimited.

The following is a direct quote from Nancy: "Surely somewhere it is written that couples that play together stay together. We're at 57 years and still counting—and courting."

Winter Rules—Due to fairway aeration and subsequent fairway inter-seeding, we will be playing "Winter Rules" through the end of November. "Winter Rules" will be defined as - In the fairway only: lift, clean and place, 6-inch relief, no nearer the hole.

2021 Golf Calendar—The 2021 golf calendar is in the final stages of production. We will disseminate the schedule and post on the website in November. As you all know, what the future holds for us is unknown, but myself and the 6-Clubs captains all put the 2021 calendar together in hopes that we will return to normalcy for the 2021 golf season.

Tips from the Pro—The Shortest Distance Between Two Points...

When you set up, be sure you are properly aligned...Not just your feet but also your knees, hips, shoulders and most importantly the clubface. Remember that only the clubface aims to the target, and the body aims parallel left of the target. The best way to set up is to set the clubface first, and then build your stance parallel left of your target or perpendicular to the clubface. Most right-handed golfers aim too far to the right but this doesn't always mean the ball will go right as their swing will compensate for poor alignment. So here is how to check your alignment every practice session for the rest of your life. The best way to do so is to lay down a club (or alignment stick) pointed to the target and another club parallel to the first club at your feet (Copy the image below to set up your practice area). Make sure your feet, hips and shoulders are all square to the shafts. This is called a "stacked" position when your feet, hips and shoulders are all parallel left of the target line. Then make swings through this parallel "channel". You should see less side spin in your ball flight. So remember to set up square and you will straighten out your ball flight...let us know how it works.

PINSEEKERS

By Jack Bindon

A good day for golf at The Villages. Our first Friday turned out some good scores and we had a "full" field so there were some real cash prizes involved.

Our winners were:

First place, we had a tie between David Cook, Lee Thompson and Leighton Horio, all with net 35. Good Job, guys.

Second place was Richard Petroski with a net 38, almost as good.

Third place went to Gary Holmquist with a net 41, a new winner on our list.

A spreadsheet has been prepared for the month of October that quantifies the prizes earned and individual "earnings" (No W-2s). John will distribute the cash on a monthly basis.

Things to remember for the month of November:

Please send me all gross scores and the names in your groups. It makes my life a lot easier. I have the handicaps for most everyone. I will prepare the Villager article for the next issue.

By the way, practice, practice.

IRONMEN

By Bill Travis

The Ironmen are currently playing every Thursday morning beginning at 9:45AM/10:00AM and every 15 minutes thereafter until all that wish to play have reserved a tee time. No sweeps as yet, but championship points are being awarded. As always, we're paying attention to the new social gathering rules.

On Thursday morning, October 29, 2020, the weather was sunny and mild. It was another beautiful day for golf and we had another great turnout. Today's results are as follows:

First place went to Phil Renteria with a net score of 23.

Second place there was a two-way tie between David Cook and Bill Travis each with a net score of 28.

Third place went to Al Bruno with a gross and net score of 29.

There were 6 birdies today:

Al Bruno had two - on holes 1 and 9;

David Cook had two - on holes 4 and 9;

Victor Hong had one on hole 4; and

Mario Silva had one on hole 5.

Deep thoughts: "Arnold Palmer turned a golf round into Dempsey-Firpo. A war. He didn't play a course, he invaded it. He looked and acted like an athlete. He was strong enough to hit a ball out of the Pacific Ocean, and did. He could go in the rough and smash a ball out of debris so thick that the ball, chunks of rocks, cans, bottles, a few squirrels, tree trunks, and parts of old Volkswagens would come flying out together. And most of them landed on the green." - The great Jim Murray, sportswriter

Butternut Squash Risotto

2 cups cubed butternut squash

2 tbsp butter

½ onion, minced

1 cup Arborio rice

1/3 cup dry white

5 cups hot chicken stock

¼ cup grated parmesan cheese

Salt and ground pepper to taste

1) In a medium-sized pot add ¼ cup of water and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Add the cubed squash. Cook until the squash is tender (10 to 15 minutes). Drain, then mash in a bowl with a fork.

2) Melt butter in a saucepan over medium-high heat. Add onion. Cook and stir for 2 minutes until onion begins to soften, then stir in the rice. Continue cooking and stirring until the rice is glossy from the butter and the onion begins to brown on the edges (5 minutes).

3) Pour in the white wine and cook, stirring constantly, until it has evaporated. Stir in the mashed squash and 1/3 of the hot chicken stock, reducing heat to medium. Cook and stir until the chicken stock has been absorbed by the rice (5 to 7 minutes). Add half of the remaining chicken stock and continue stirring until it has been absorbed. Pour in remaining chicken stock and continue stirring until risotto is creamy. Stir in parmesan cheese. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Dealer: South
Vulnerability: None

Bidding: South	West	North	East
Pass	Pass	1 Diamond	Pass
1 Heart	Pass	2 Clubs	Pass
2 Hearts	Pass	4 Hearts	All Pass

Contract: 4 Hearts
Opening lead: King of Spades

Dealer has possible 3 losers in Spades, 1 in Hearts, 1 Diamond loser and maybe a loser in Clubs. Strategy: Since North and South have distributional hands, the opponents will probably have similar hands. It might be a good idea not to pull trumps but set up cross ruffs in order to take the most tricks.

West leads the King of Spades, South, the Ace, switches to the Jack of Clubs, West ducks, and South now plays a Diamond. He finesses the King on the board, East, the Ace, follows with a Club, West, the 9, and South covers with the 10. He leads the Queen of Diamonds, sluffs a Club from his hand, continues with another Diamond, East trumps with the 8, South overtakes it with the 9. He then plays a Spade, trumps it on the board, and now leads the Ace of Hearts and is very happy to see the King fall on the trick. He next plays the Ace of Clubs, East trumps with the 5 of Hearts, South wins with the 7 of Hearts, continues with the Queen of Hearts to take the last trump out. He then leads his last card, the 10 of Spades, and West takes then trick with the King. Well done! The contract is made with an overtrick. If East had not played a Heart on the Ace of Clubs, and sluffed a Spade instead, then South would play the last Diamond, sluffing the 10 of Spades from his hand, and then be able to lead through East in Hearts and make 2 overtricks.

Along the Way—a trip down Memory Lane

(With Tom Zades—contact him at: tomzades@gmail.com)

During this COVID-19 pandemic (April 2020) we have been hearing how upset many couples are about the men not being allowed in the delivery rooms. Sandy and I never had that privilege, but we took the situation in stride at the time. It's not hard when you are complying with laws and obeying rules. We fell prey to two rules/laws that no longer exist: Firstly, that fathers were not allowed in the delivery room during a C-section (caesarian section) and secondly that once a woman had a C-section, she must not be allowed to go into labor during any future pregnancies. Since our first child was delivered by emergency C-section in 1969, our second and third children also needed to be delivered by C-section.

I've seen enough depictions of deliveries on TV that I feel I know what happens—to the extent I want to know. I'm not squeamish or anything. I just feel fine leaving the details to the woman and her doctor. But now I wish I'd had the choice. Now the rules are different, but I cannot go back and witness my own children being born. Actually, I can't go back and do anything differently now.

It's not that we necessarily want to go back; it's that we can't. That's why we focus on and enjoy the here and now. The lyrics to George Burns' song "Old Bones" include: "Just to have the chance to turn back the clock and make my life begin. Oh, yeah. I'd like to do it again." When I sing those words I really wonder. There were a lot of highs and lows, lessons learned the hard way as well as the easy way. Would I really want to go through it all again? I'm not so sure. How about you?

OBITUARY

Beverly Takeda

February 9, 1933 — October 20, 2020

Bev was born in San Jose, the youngest of seven children. Her family was interned during WWII; at the end of the War, they returned to San Jose to resume their nursery and floral businesses. Bev earned her Elementary Teaching Credential at San Jose State. Her first job was with the Alum Rock School District. She was then hired by Saratoga Union School District where she taught until her retirement.

It was in Saratoga that Bev became interested in teaching Special Education students. Bev never doubted her students' ability to achieve, and always worked to help them realize their full potential. She also wished for them to have the same kinds of enriching experiences as their peers. To this end, she arranged for "special" visitors to her classroom; such people as Olympic figure-skater Peggy Fleming, television newscaster and author of "Humphrey The Lost Whale," Wendy Takuda, and Apple co-founder Steve Wozniak visited Bev's students. Bev never married, but she loved her students as her own, and kept in touch with many of them into adulthood.

Bev enjoyed her retirement in The Villages where she made many new friends, while still maintaining close friendships with her former colleagues.

Bev was thoughtful, kind, and loved by many people. She will be missed by all.
